RE TRUE DEMOCRATIC RULE!

VORDS TO THE VOTERS.

Mr. Low. In a way Mr. Low and myself stand for reformer and I am a reformer. But he is an ariseople. Mr. Low is a Republican and I am a Demo-OW. I WOULD NOT VOTE FOR HIM MYSELF. RM BY DEMOCRATIC MEASURES."

WRY GEORGE'S LAST POLITICAL SPEECHES.

WISH to say I have advised no one to vote for Mr. Low. In a way Mr. Low and myself stand for the same principle in this campaign. But Mr. Low is an aristocratic reformer, and I am from the common people.

Mr. Low is a Republican and I am a Democrat. I advise no one to vote for Mr. Low, I would not vote him myself.

These are Mr. George's exact words. I remember them perfectly.

REASONS WHY EVERY DEMOCRAT SHOULD VOTE FOR ROBERT A. VAN WYCK FOR MAYOR.

J. PETER NANSEN'S OATH TO IT.

REMEMBER distinctly the words of Henry George on Thursday night, October 28, to the effect contained in the hereto appended extract from the New York Journal:

I WISH TO SAY I HAVE ADVISED NO ONE TO VOTE FOR MR. LOW, IN A WAY, MR. LOW AND MYSELF STAND FOR THE SAME PRINCIPLE IN THIS CAMPAIGN. HE IS A REFORMER AND I AM A REFORMER. BUT MR. LOW IS AN ARISTOCRATIC REFORMER AND I AM FROM THE COMMON PROPLE. MR. LOW IS A REPUBLICAN AND I AM A DEMOCRAT. I ADVISE NO ONE TO VOTE FOR MR. LOW. I WOULD NOT VOTE FOR HIM MYSELF.

Sworn and subscribed before me, David L. Godley, Notary Public, Queens County, November 1, 1897.

THINGS THE DEMOCRACY IS PLEDGED TO FURTHER. Dollar Gas, Municipal Ownership and Control of All Public Franchises, Schools for the Children of All, Clean Streets, Equality in Taxation, Rapid Transit and Union Pay for City Labor.

Because in Democratic Government Only Will

Home Rule and Personal Liberty Be Obtained by New Yorkers.

H ERE are a few reasons why every Democrat should vote for Robert A. Van Wyck. Because he is the representative of Democracy and stands for the Democratic party, Because the Democratic party represents Home Rule. Because the Democratic party believes in the personal liberty of the citizen Because the Democratic party is the champion of municipal ownership and muni-ipal control of public franchises. Because the Democratic party believes in the suppression of all trusts and other unlawful combinations, formed for the purpose of increasing the price of necessitics for the profit of a few at the expense of the many.

Because the Democratic party is determined that the people shall have dollar gas, and fuel at the lowest practicable price. Because the Democratic party believes in and insists upon just and equitable

Because the Democratic party will so e to it that the Eight-Hour Labor law is Because the Democratic party stands for the employment of resident labor in all the public departments.

Because the Democratic party ardently advocates rapid transit. Because the Democratic party is pledged to the prompt and substantial impro ent of the water front. Because the Democratic party demands the restoration to the people of theh

Stenographer Pruden's Oath. HAVE no quarret with Seth Low. I ask simply the people to vote. If you choose to vote for Seth Low I shall make no objection. Let them vote. Let the thing be determined, but this is very far from the idea that I should ask my supporters to vote for Mr. Low. (Applause.) I would not, and I could not. I am a Democrat. (Applause.) Mr. Low is a Republican. I would reform things by the power of the people and in the way of the people. ple. I would reform them in a Democratic way by bringing together Democratic principles. Mr. Low is an aristocrat. His reform is the aristocratic reform. - Extract from speech of Henry George, delivered at Schillein's Hall, East New York, Wednesday,

City and County of New York, as: James P. Pruden, being duly swork, says that he resides and does business in the city of New 1897, he reported the apecch delivered by Mr. Henry George at East New York, and that the extract from said speech furnished herewith is a true and correct report of the same.

'Every Democrat's Duty." William A. Jones, member of Congress, Warsaw, Vn.-Viewel from the standpoint of a Virginia Denocrat, I will not hesitate to say that I be lieve it to be the duty of every Denn cratic voter in Greater New York to support the candidacy of Van Wyck. His election would be halled as a great victory for the cause of Democracy throughout the Union, and gives to that cause new hope and life everywhere.

"Wil Inspire Every Democrat." Elijah B. Lewis, member of Congress, Montegums, Ga.-I am glad to speak to the Democrats of Greater New York, and tell them that the electlou of Van Wyck will make glad the heart of every Georgia Democrat, That we feel the greatest interest in their great battle, and if victorious, it will inspire every Democrat of the United States for greater work in the

"Hi, There! Don't Leave Me So Far Behind!"

CHAIRMAN ABBOT IS POSITIVE.

C 0 far as Mr. Low is antagonistic to bosses, he had Henry George's sympathy. On every other point they were antagonistic. It was never Mr. George's purpose, nor is it the purpose of the committee, to help the election of Mr. Low, who has tried to get his share of our political assets. I have no hesitancy in verifying and affirming the published extract quoting Mr. George as anylog: "I would advise no one to vote for Mr. Low. I would not vote for him myself. Mr. Low is a Republican and I am a Democrat," as being true and correct, for I have heard him, in personal conversation, make, time and time again, the same strong statement.

Chairman of the George Campaign Committee.

"Democrats, Do Your Duty!" George J. Benner, Member of Con-gress, Gettysburg, Pa. The first Mayor of Greater New York should be a Democrat. The regular party organ-ization presents in Judge Van Wyck a clean, capable candidate. Democrats, do your duty, and give him a rousing majority!

"Vote Solidly for Van Wyck." Andrew F. Fox, Member of Congress, West Point, Miss.—Democrats every-where earnestly hope that New York Democrats will vote solidly for Van Wyck to-morrow.

"Vote and Work for Him."

YORKERS TO STAND BY VAN WYCK AND WIN A CERTAIN VICTORY.

Van Wyck the Right Man,

Evansville, Ind., Nov. 1. Editor of the Journal:

In view of Henry George's death

I believe It to be the duty of all Democrats to vote for Van Wyck.

JOHN GILBERT SHANKLIN,

Member National Committee.

Stand By Your Guns.

Sulphur Springs, Tex., Nov. 1. Editor of the Journal:

Texas Democrats send greetings to boys in the trenches. To vote against Van Wyck is to vote against Democracy. His election to-morrow means triumph of Democracy. In 1000. Stand by your guns till the last shot is fired.

> JOHN W. CRANFORD, Congressman Fourth District.

Democrats Can Win. Eufaula, Ala., Nov. 1. Editor of the Journal:

The Democrats throughout the country expect every Democrat in Greater New York to do his duty to-morrow, to vote for the party's nominee, Van Wyck. The unterrified and undivided Democracy of New York City can elect the Mayor this year and give the electoral vote of the State to the Democratic candidate for President in 1900. No Democrat ought to underestimate the importance of his vote or of the election of Van Wyck.
H. D. CLAYTON.

Member National Committee.

Victory Now. Victory in 1900. Reading, Pa., Nov. 1. Editor of the Journal:

Old Berks, the Gibraltar of Democracy in Pennsylvania, is looking with anxious eyes for to-morrow's result in New York City. They believe that the success of the Democracy that the success of the Democracy in the Union in 1900 and the salvation of the people depend upon the election of Judge Van Wyck as Mayor of Greater New York. We therefore beg the unconquerable Democracy of that great territory to work with a will, to redouble their efforts and leave nothing undone between this hour and the closing of the polis to secure the glorious victory within their grasp.

DANIEL ERMENTROUT, Representative Ninth District.

Rice A. Pierce, Member of Congress, Union City, Tenn.—Recognizing Van Wyck as the regular Democratic nom-inee, I earnestly urge all Democrati to vote and work for his election.
